NOTE: COMPLETE THE ATTACHED IRS FORM 8821

AND RETURN IT WITH YOUR DISASTER LOAN APPLICATION.

The IRS Form 8821 gives your permission to disclose Federal income tax information directly to SBA. SBA requires this information to process your disaster loan application.

Completing this document is as easy as A-B-C-D

B. Next, write your social security number(s). If you are a corporation or partnership, write the employer identification number.

A. Write your name(s) and address in

C. Copy the information exactly as it is here. Use Tax Years 1999, 2000, and 2001 for Section c. Also provide installment agreement and / or lien information for tax years beginning 1985 through 2001

D. Print your name(s) and provide your signature(s) and date in block 7. For a corporation, the IRS Form 8821 must be signed by the President or Chief Executive Officer of the corporation. If the 8821 is signed by any other officer, the signature must be attested to by another corporate officer with their signature, date and title also appearing on the 8821.

While the IRS Form 8821 will allow SBA to obtain your tax return information from the IRS, you may also submit copies of your Federal tax returns. Please note that if you are a corporation, partnership or private non-profit organization you must also submit complete copies of your Federal Tax Returns (including all schedules) in addition to the IRS Form 8821.

A separate IRS Form 8821 must be returned with the disaster loan application for: (1) each disaster applicant (individuals filing joint tax returns may use a single IRS Form 8821), (2) each corporation or partnership in which the disaster loan applicant holds a 20% or greater interest, (3) each individual or entity which holds a 20% or greater interest in the disaster loan applicant, (4) each general partner, and (5) each affiliate business.

Every Applicant MUST complete, sign, date and return the IRS Form 8821(s) with your disaster loan application package.
